Risk Warning: CFDs are complex instruments and come with a high risk of losing money rapidly due to leverage. The vast majority of retail investor accounts lose money when trading CFDs. You should consider whether you understand how CFDs work and whether you can afford to take the high risk of losing your money

1. These third party terms (“Third Party Terms”) apply in addition to our Terms and Conditions and other legal documents that together govern our relationship with you (“Agreements”). You confirm that you’ve read, understand and agree to be bound by the Agreements and Third Party Terms. If there are any contradictions between our Agreements and these Third Party Terms, these Third Party Terms will apply.

2. When you connect your Pepperstone account with TradingView Inc.’s social network and analysis system (“TradingView”), your trades are executed on the cTrader platform provided by cTrader (“Platform”).

3. You understand and agree:

- a. to grant TradingView access to:
 - i. view your balance and account activities;
 - ii. process your orders and trades; and
 - iii. access market data;
- b. that TradingView is a third party provider and, because of this, we don’t control, endorse or vouch for the accuracy or completeness of TradingView. Pepperstone makes no warranty or representation, either express or implied, regarding the TradingView system and services;
- c. Pepperstone isn’t responsible or liable for losses you may suffer as a result of using, or accessing, TradingView or if any data, charting package or information provided by TradingView is inaccurate or incomplete in any respect;
- d. that the prices displayed within TradingView only reflect the indicative prices and not the actual prices at which we’ll execute trades. All trades are executed on the Platform. It’s possible that we may execute your orders at a different price to the price displayed within TradingView. You should use the Platform for primary position management;
- e. that you’re entirely responsible and liable for all transactions entered into on your account via TradingView;
- f. that if you have questions about TradingView’s tools and features, you should contact TradingView via their customer support system. If you have questions about your Pepperstone account, trades or other Pepperstone related matters, you should contact us at support@pepperstone.com; and

- g. that you can revoke access to TradingView by logging into Pepperstone.

4. Capitalised terms used but not otherwise defined shall have the meanings as set out in the Agreements.
